Australian Privacy Law states “businesses must ‘take reasonable steps to destroy or de-identify personal information that is no longer required’”. Careless discarding of confidential information can put your business and your client’s identities at risk, you also become vulnerable to severe fines.

We are pleased to announce that with immediate effect we can now offer a Confidential Document Shredding Service.

Locally owned and operated we can collect your documents and transport them to our site in Wyllie Street, Thabeban, Bundaberg and shred them the same day, you can come and witness the shredding and/or have a Certificate of Destruction for your documents.

Large or small quantities, regular collections or one-offs they are all the same to us, bins and bags to suit your needs or we’ll take archive boxes or your own bags, you can even deliver by arrangement.

Cross cut into small pieces that even the most discerning eye would have extreme difficulty in deciphering or rejoining, destruction means destruction, no half measures here. To finish the process off we then deliver the shredded material to a recycling facility so it can be used in manufacturing new products.

All of this added to our existing services of collecting recyclable materials such as Metals, Cardboard, Plastics, Bubblewrap, Palletwrap, Styrofoam (Polystyrene), IT Equipment, Telephones, Electrical Goods, Drink Cans, Aerosols, Junk Mail and much much more.

Using our services should save you money, CHALLENGE US by inviting us to carry out a full survey of your wastes and give truthful answers.
